

Association des familles Plante inc.

Necessity is the mother of invention. So, faced with a limited budget as a nonprofit organization (NPO), we thought of a way to provide English-speaking visitors with an acceptable translation solution, which you can find here on our website's homepage:

plantefamilles.org

Of course, it's not perfect, but you'll find that most of the text has been automatically translated. There are exceptions where Google Translate still struggles, but we're working on it with our limited NPO resources.

To translate our website, we recommend a free tool: Google Translation (Translate). It cannot only translate our website acceptably but can also translate documents. Below is a colour diagram showing how it works.

Thank you for your understanding.

A few easy steps:

- Go to this Google Translate website or click on the link below: <https://translate.google.ca/>
- Then, follow the 4 steps by clicking on the indicated choices.

Polishing the diamond

Our website will be the cornerstone in the future for the development of the Plante Family Association in terms of recruitment, member services, information concerning genealogy and the history of the Plante families.

We have in our hands something like a rough diamond, just waiting to be polished to continue shining. I hope you enjoy reading it, and please don't hesitate to send us your comments or questions. We'll take note of them.
